CS Montague

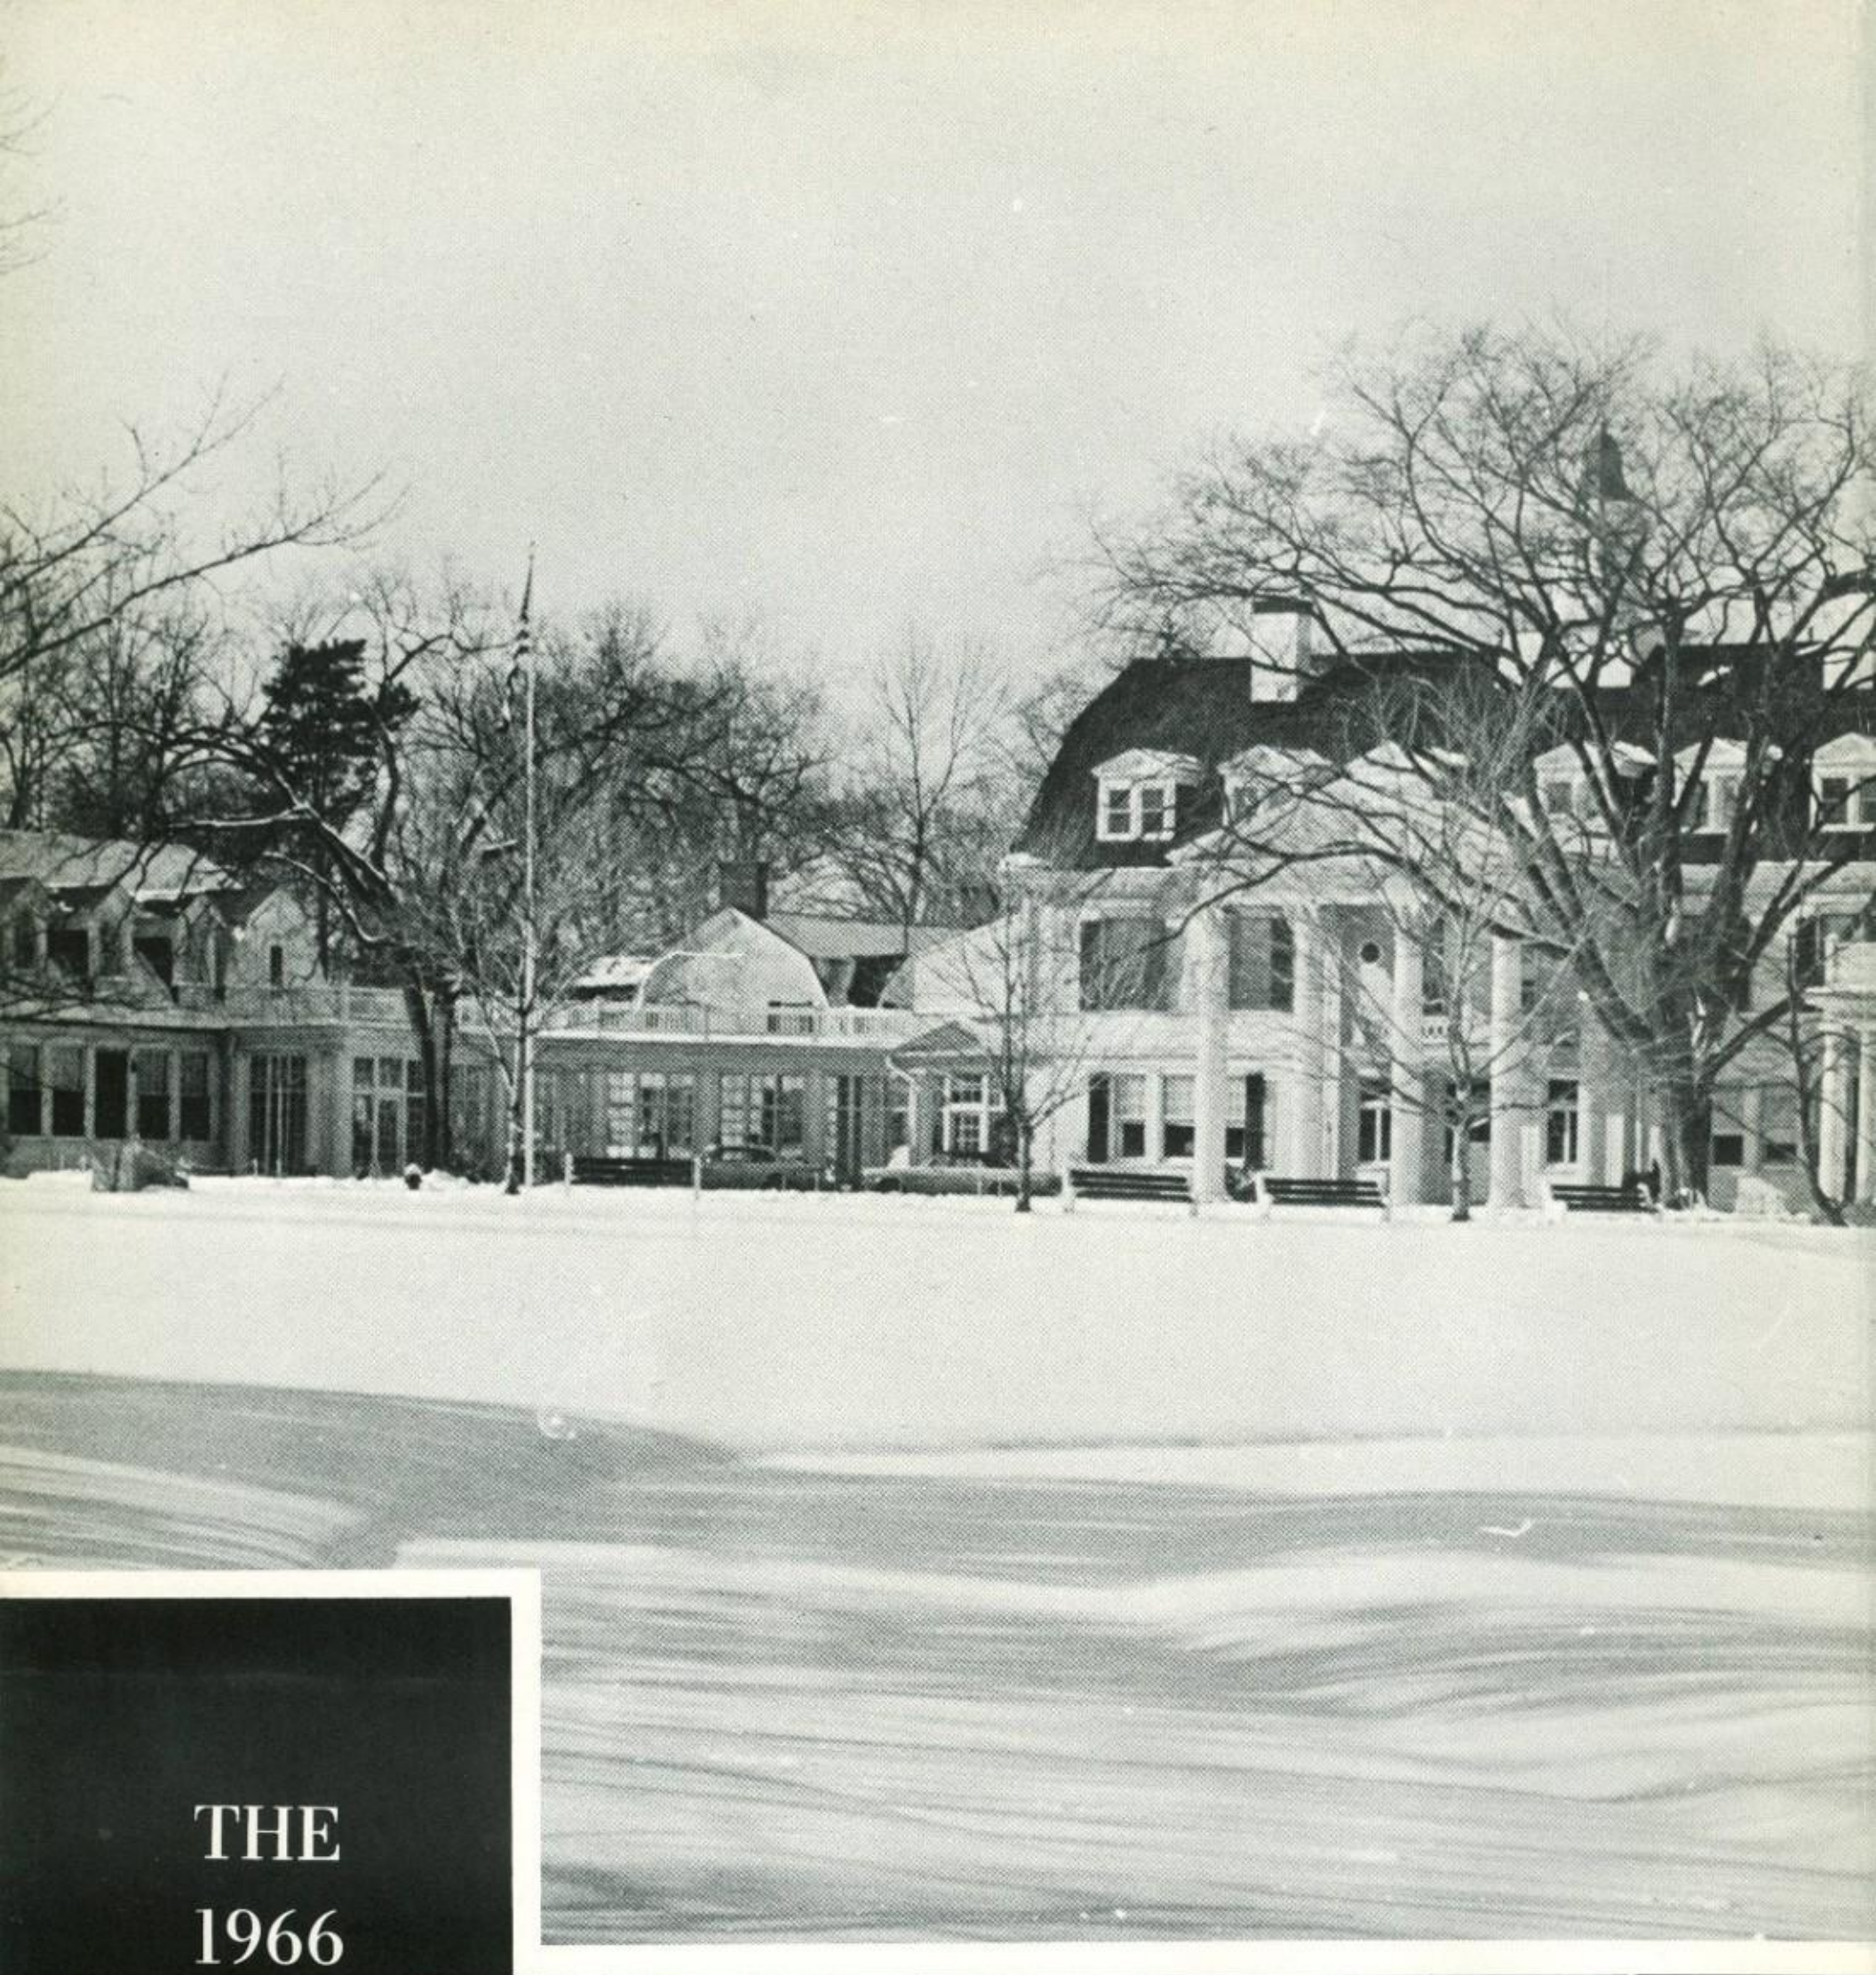

Dear Chuck,
Hi! I'm sort of a foreigner to this yearbook - not going to your school, that is. I wish I had, though! Now you are an alumnus, & I'm still in school. Public schools are better anyway - ~~you~~ you don't have cheerleaders! All kidding aside, you have an excellent school and a great class. I hope you all get together and have many happy reunions. Next year will be alot of work and sweat, but if you apply yourself - get somewhere. Remember what I told you last night about self-respect. --- if you can remember anything! Good luck this summer, study hard, & write me lots of letters. Remember all the good times we've had together since February, and the fun we'll have this summer when you get home. I'll miss you. Love, Robin

SALMAGUNDI

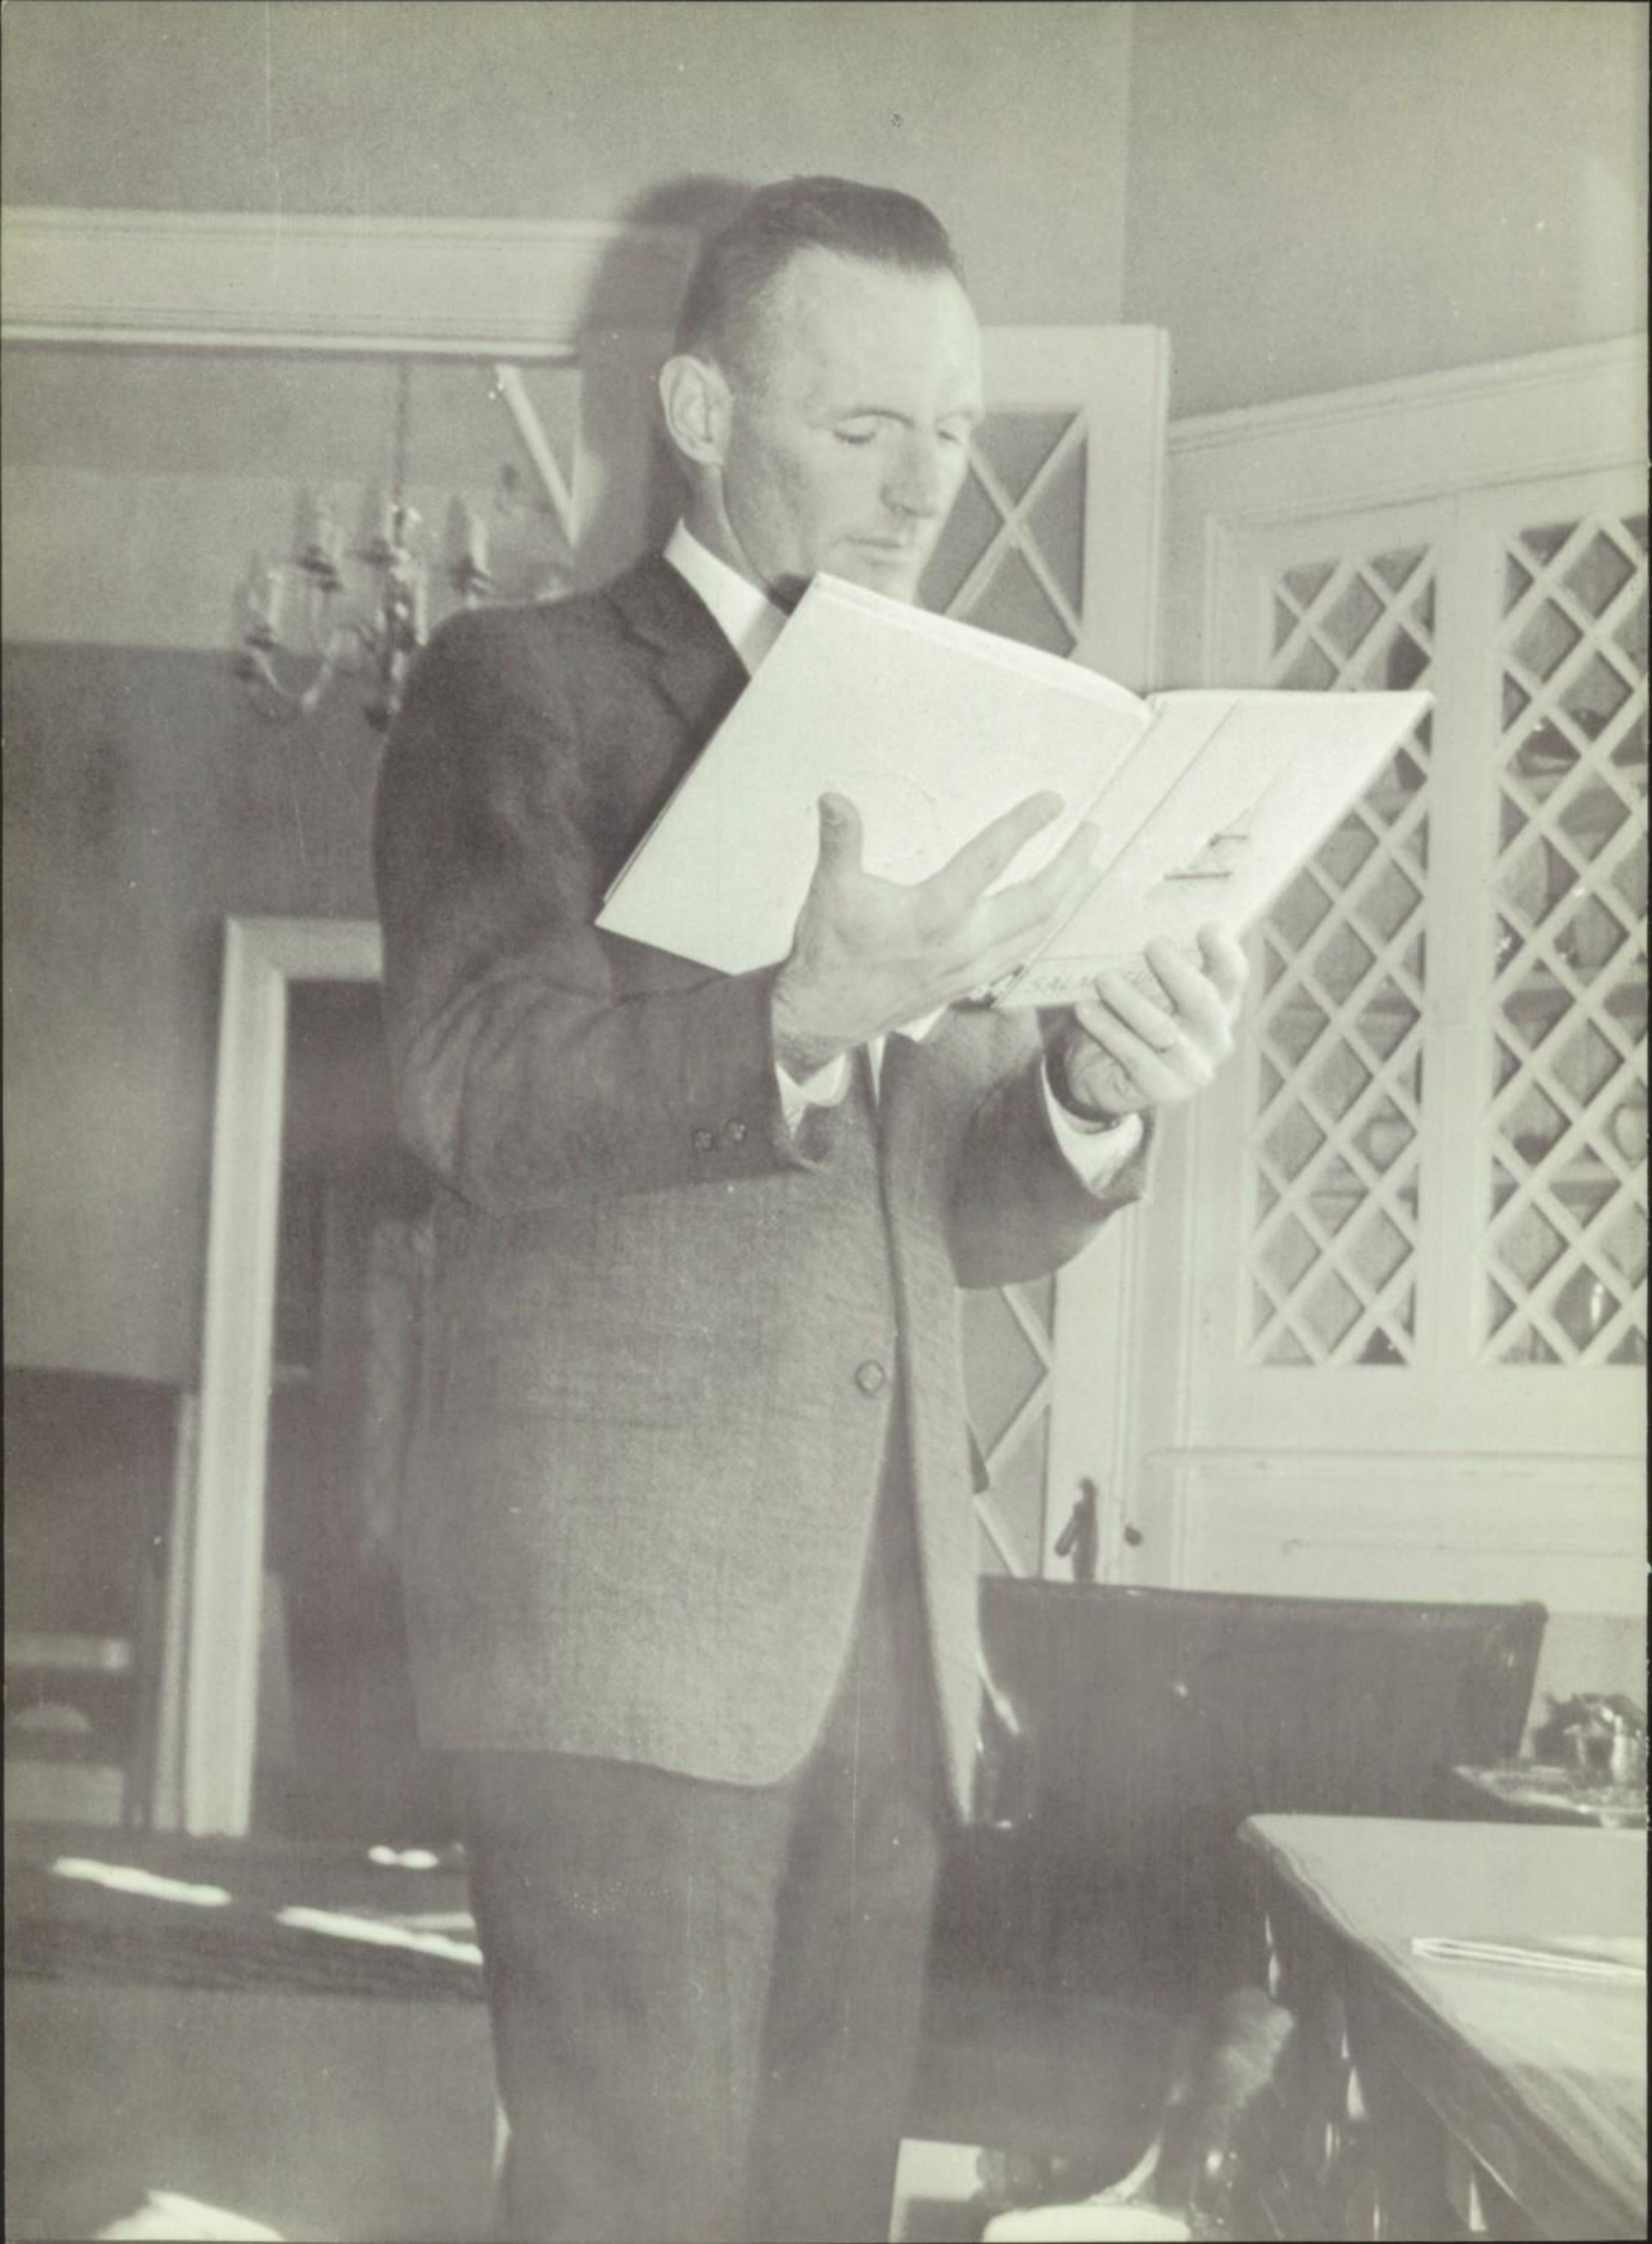

An often-repeated cliché states that life is a game, nothing more, nothing less. The game of chess, with its inexorable rules and time-honored proprieties is played in much the same way as a student is expected to pursue his secondary school career—with determination, calm, preparedness and high ethical standards. For this reason, we have selected the game of chess as a fitting theme for this year's annual, and because we believe that the Class of 1966 has, more than any graduating class to date, played their game by the rules and succeeded.

We, the editors of the Salmagundi and the members of the class of 1966 dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Charles O'Neill, a respected teacher and friend to the seniors and the student body of Morristown School. He has devoted his time and effort to the betterment of the school and to the intellectual, moral, and social maturity of its students.

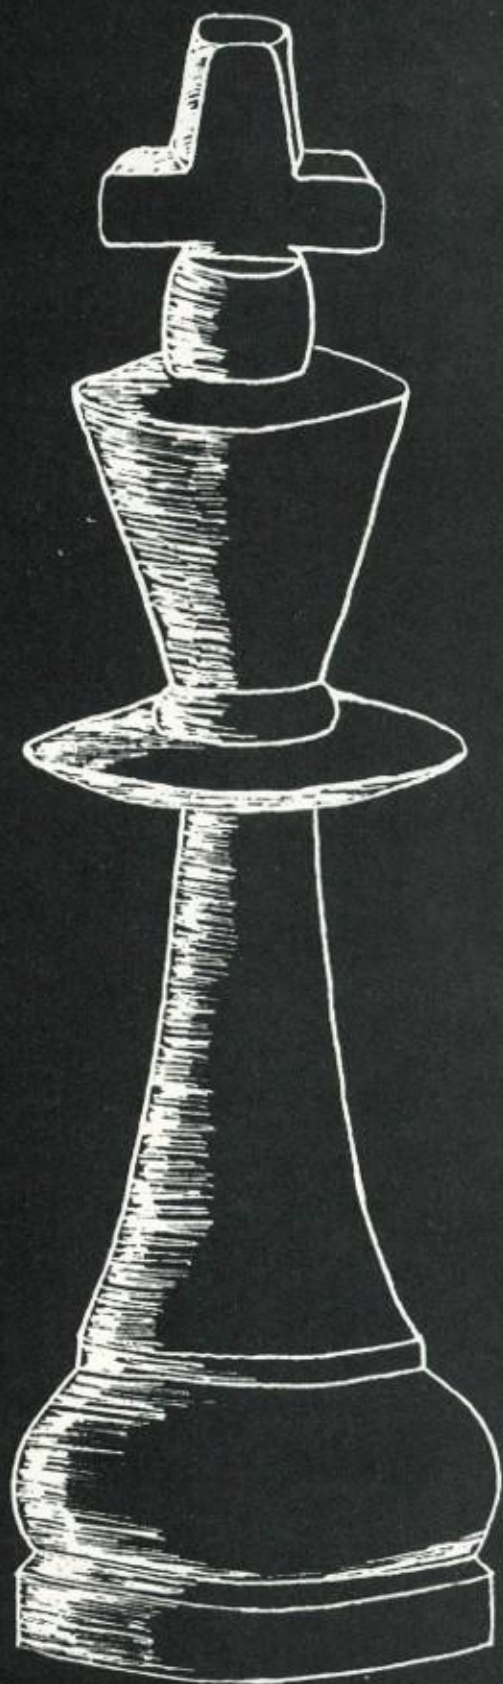

As Morristown's Latin teacher he has successfully instructed students in the basics of languages and in the study of the classics.

As the varsity baseball coach he has led his team to many victories and instilled in all of those who played for him a strong sense of fair play, honesty, and true sportsmanship.

Finally, to all the students at Morristown, Mr. O'Neill has been an understanding friend, always ready to listen and talk. We hope that Mr. O'Neill will continue his career at Morristown for many years because he has made an invaluable contribution to the school and to us, the class of 1966.

DEDICATION

FACULTY

Morristown has been fortunate in the past as far as having a competent and devoted faculty, and this year is no exception. They help us both in and out of the classroom. Their dedication to their work, both academic and otherwise cannot be praised enough.

Mr. Grant is easily located when not in his office, by tracing the sound of his New England accent to its source. He is always ready and willing to listen to a student's problems and can usually be counted on for a solution. In spite of his busy schedule he finds time to help the seniors choose the college right for them.

THOMPSON D. GRANT

A.B., M.A., Colby

Headmaster

ROBERT H. WHINERY

B.S.Ed., Kansas State Teachers College
M.A. Sch. Adm., University of Colorado.
Assistant to the Headmaster; Algebra I

Mr. Burke is Morristown's answer to Mr. Chips. His long stay at the school has provided him with an endless fund of anecdotes with which to regale his classes. Although appearing stern, we all know that his heart is of the purest gold. Many an athletic contest has been spurred on to victory by one of his inspirational pep talks. Mr. Burke is as irrevocably a part of Morristown as the cupolas, and we hope that he will be with us as long as they.

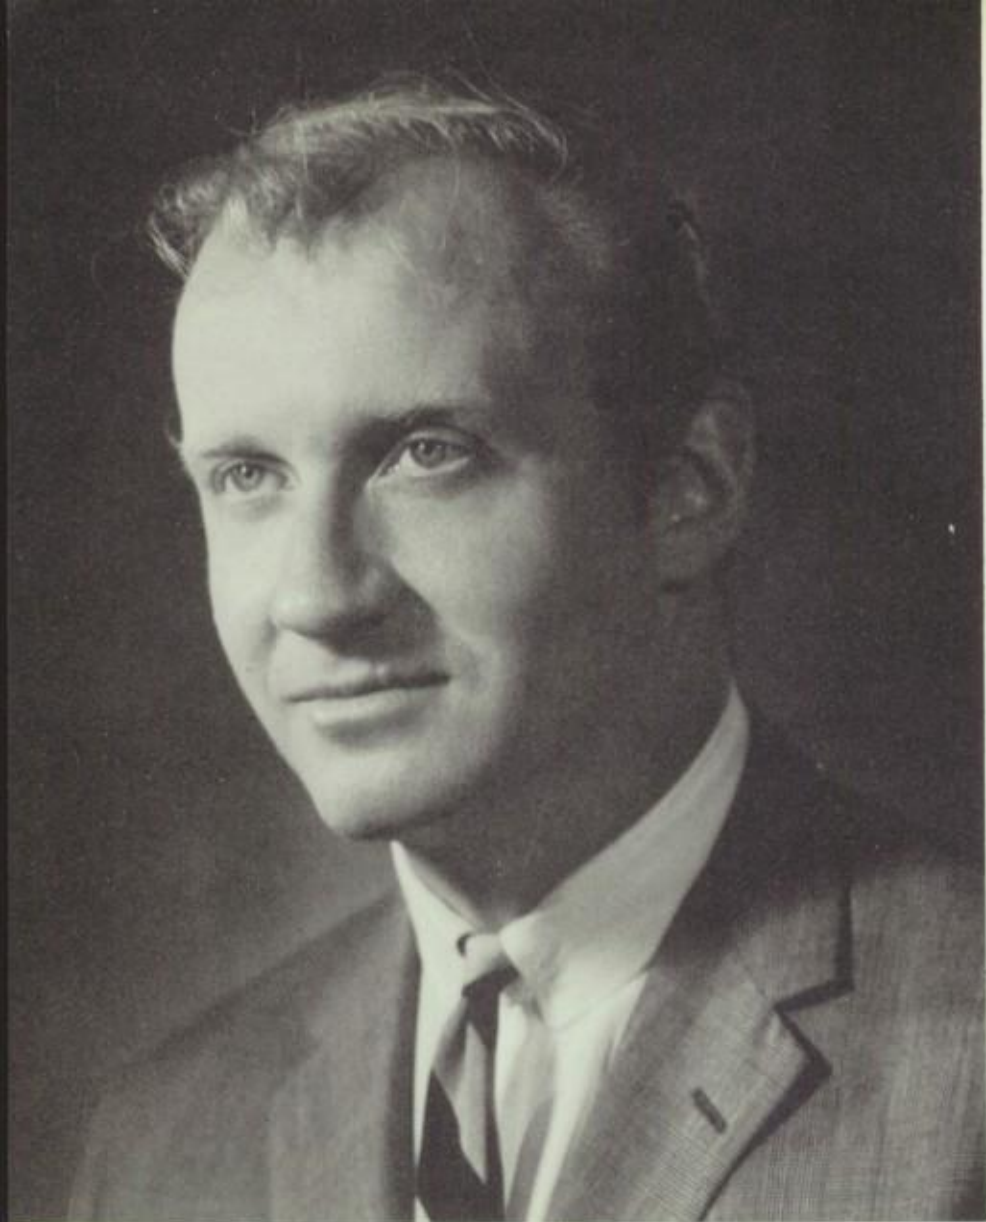

In the short time that Mr. Whinery has been at Morristown, his determination and efficiency have made him an integral part of the school's organization. The job of Assistant to the Headmaster is not an easy one but Mr. Whinery has filled it conscientiously and well. We all owe Mr. Whinery a vote of thanks for making Morristown School a pleasant and smoothly-run place in which to learn.

JOHN H. BURKE

Colby, Columbia

Economics; Social Studies I, II; Senior Master; Master on Duty.

DONALD MacFARLANE

A.B., Bloomfield

Calculus, Advanced Mathematics I, II, Head of Mathematics Department, Form VI Guidance Counsellor, Hockey, Salmagundi, Social Committee

*To a senior who has a sense of courage: Good Luck
R. W. Pease*

Mr. Pease is famous among chemistry and physics students for the wild abandon with which he throws himself into his experiments. His method of teaching is unique and will long be remembered at Morristown. Besides his teaching duties, Mr. Pease serves the school as head of the Book Store, distributing textbooks to students. As the head of the Science Department, his familiarity with the subject of chemistry and physics is unparalleled at Morristown.

In the considerable length of time that Mr. MacFarlane has been teaching at Morristown, he has taken a hand in every phase of school life, from sports to the post of yearbook advisor, all in addition to his duties in the classroom. A popular master, his cheery smile and erudite sense of humor have made him the universal favorite at school functions. Students instinctively search Mr. MacFarlane out when they are worried, need guidance or merely feel like talking. Mr. MacFarlane appears to enjoy his job as much as we enjoy having him among us.

ROBERT W. PEASE

B.S., Worcester Polytechnic Institute

Chemistry, Physics, Head of Science Department, School Book Store

RALPH W. SPECK

B.A., Bucknell; U.C.L.A.; M.A., N.Y.U.

Head of English Department, English V, VI, U.S. History, French II; Advisor, M.S. News; Senior Dorm Master, Lower North

Mr. Speck's students have come to fear his acrimoniously humorous classroom comments directed at unprepared students and "pollywogglers." Under his guidance, the Morristown School News has blossomed into a really first-rate publication, of which the school can be justifiably proud. Mr. Speck makes a habit of being extremely well-prepared for all his classes, a part of his character most appreciated by his students. His interest in the legitimate theater has lent flavor to many an otherwise prosaic English lesson.

EDITH L. SMITH

B.S., Rutgers; M.A., N.Y.U.; Syracuse University Library School; Carnegie Institute of Technology Library School.

Librarian

Miss Smith is always willing to help any student in need of a book for term papers, book reports, and the like. Famed as Prep's ornithology expert, Miss Smith encourages reading in all fields. Though controlling a library full of kids is no easy task, Miss Smith comes through the day smiling. Pleasant and efficient, M.S. is lucky to have her.

When not in the classroom, Mr. Fessenden can be found coaching any one of three athletic teams. Mr. Fessenden is responsible for coordinating the schedules of all our interscholastic sports. A conscientious teacher, Mr. Fessenden has instructed many students in the mysterious ways of the spirogyra and the paramecium. As the day ends, Mr. Fessenden boards the Owl for the long trip to Bernardsville.

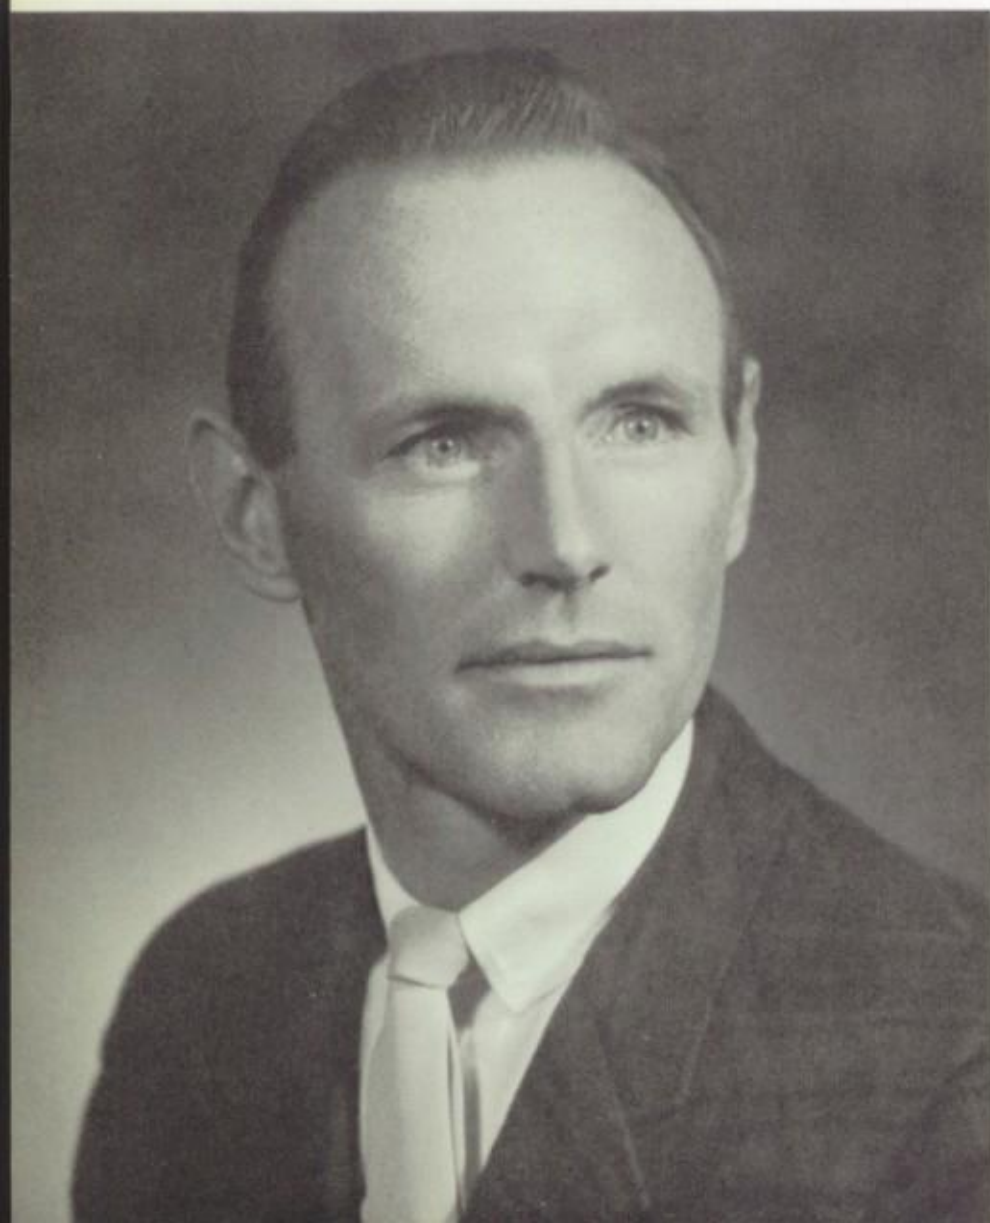

GEORGE L. FESSENDEN

B.S.Ed., Panzer College; M.A. Columbia University
Director of Athletics; Biology; Varsity Football, Varsity Basketball, Varsity Tennis

CHARLES J. O'NEILL

B.S. Education, St. John's University
Latin I, II, III, IV; Varsity Baseball, Intramural; Cum Laude Secretary, J.V. Football

Since Mr. O'Neill has been here, he has acquired a wife, a bevy of children and many good friends among both students and faculty. He is unanimously respected among the student body for his acid sense of humor, his knowledge of the subject he teaches and his deep religious feelings. His determination and desire to succeed carry over into the two teams he coaches, baseball and football.

Mr. James fulfills an important position in the Morristown School administration, that of chairman of the Discipline Committee. Despite his office, however, he is admired and respected by the students. Mr. James' musical talents are displayed daily in chapel and add a professional touch to the service. His intense interest in sports has led him to coach three of our Junior Varsity teams: football, basketball and baseball, and performs the useful service of training our younger athletes for the day when they attain Varsity status.

ARTHUR L. JAMES

B.S., Johns Hopkins; T.C., Peabody Conservatory
English I, II, III; Discipline Committee; Varsity and J.V.
Football; J.V. Basketball; J.V. Baseball

LARRY TOTTON

B.A., Lehigh University; N.Y.U.; Fairleigh Dickinson
Greek and Roman History, Modern European History,
Far Eastern History; Head of History Department;
Advisor, Varsity "M" Club, Guidance, Form IV; Cross Country, Wrestling, Track; Upper North, Upper South

Best of luck,
Larry Totton

Mr. Totton excels in everything he does, whether it be teaching a history class or coaching one of his winning teams. His slogans have become famous the school over and he lives up to each and every one of them. His intense interest in wrestling has assisted the team to an amazing number of honors for a private school team. Mr. Totton attended the Prep himself and his stories of the school at that time are entertaining to all.

ROSA STEWART

Trenton State Teachers College, Juilliard
Developmental Reading, Study Techniques; Band, Preps, Music Lessons

This year, as in the many years she has been here, Mrs. Stewart has contributed immeasurably to Morristown School. As the leader of the band she has kept up the band's high standards and instructed musically inclined students. But more important is Mrs. Stewart's contribution to the education of the Lower Schoolers. She takes a personal interest in the scholastic development of each student.

N. HOWARD AYERS

B.S., Rutgers, M.A., Columbia, U. of Buffalo
 Hamilton College
Geometry

Mr. Ayres is one of the most experienced members of our faculty, and in the two years that he has been with us, we have also found him to be one of the most dedicated. Teaching on a part-time basis, he is able to devote a great deal of time to the academic problems of each of his students. Mr. Ayres also has a keen interest in golf.

Mr. Berninger always has a friendly smile and a pleasant word for everyone. He is universally liked by the inhabitants of Morristown School for this and other qualities. His interests range far beyond the teaching of French, and he is an accomplished public speaker and lecturer in his own right. His preoccupation with music has led him to become the advisor to the school Glee Club, which, under his guidance, developed into a well-knit organization, performing creditably at school functions.

CARL S. BERNINGER

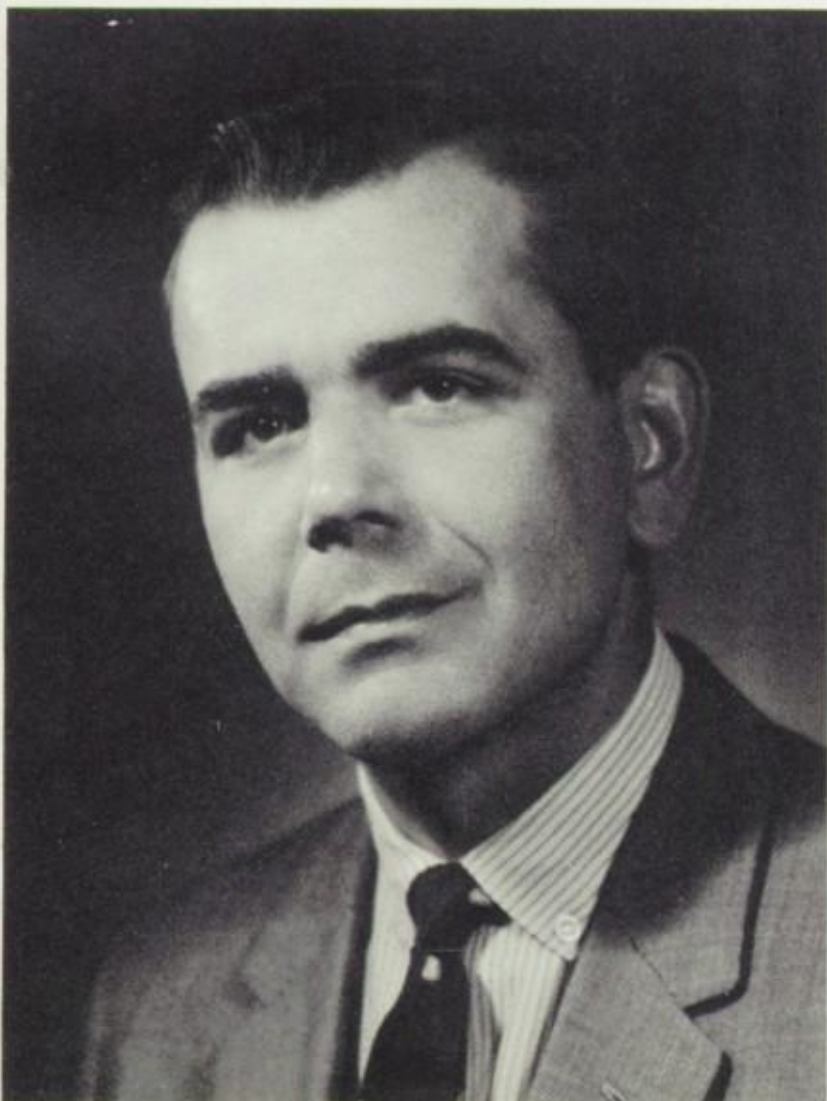

B.S.Ed., Bloomsburg College
Princeton Theological Seminary

*Head of Modern Language Department, French, Latin;
Glee Club; Form I and II Guidance; Chapel Committee;
School Organist; Night Librarian; Lower House*

JOHN BURR

A.B., Union, Hunter

German I, II, III, IV, Boys' Store, Track, Intramural, Upper House

Reserved and good-natured, Mr. Burr is easily one of the most popular masters on campus. His quiet sense of humor is famous among his classes and the students in his dormitory. The German students look forward to Friday, when Mr. Burr holds a Singspiel in the gym, accompanied by his accordion. He exercises his authority as head of the German table every day at lunch.

Mr. Hall is new at Morristown this year, but has already become popular among the students. A strict authoritarian, he unbends easily outside of class and is a good conversationalist. Mr. Hall's interest in sports is great, and prompted him to take charge of the Lower School athletic program. The inhabitants of Lower South, his dormitory, attribute their considerable spirit to his guidance and leadership.

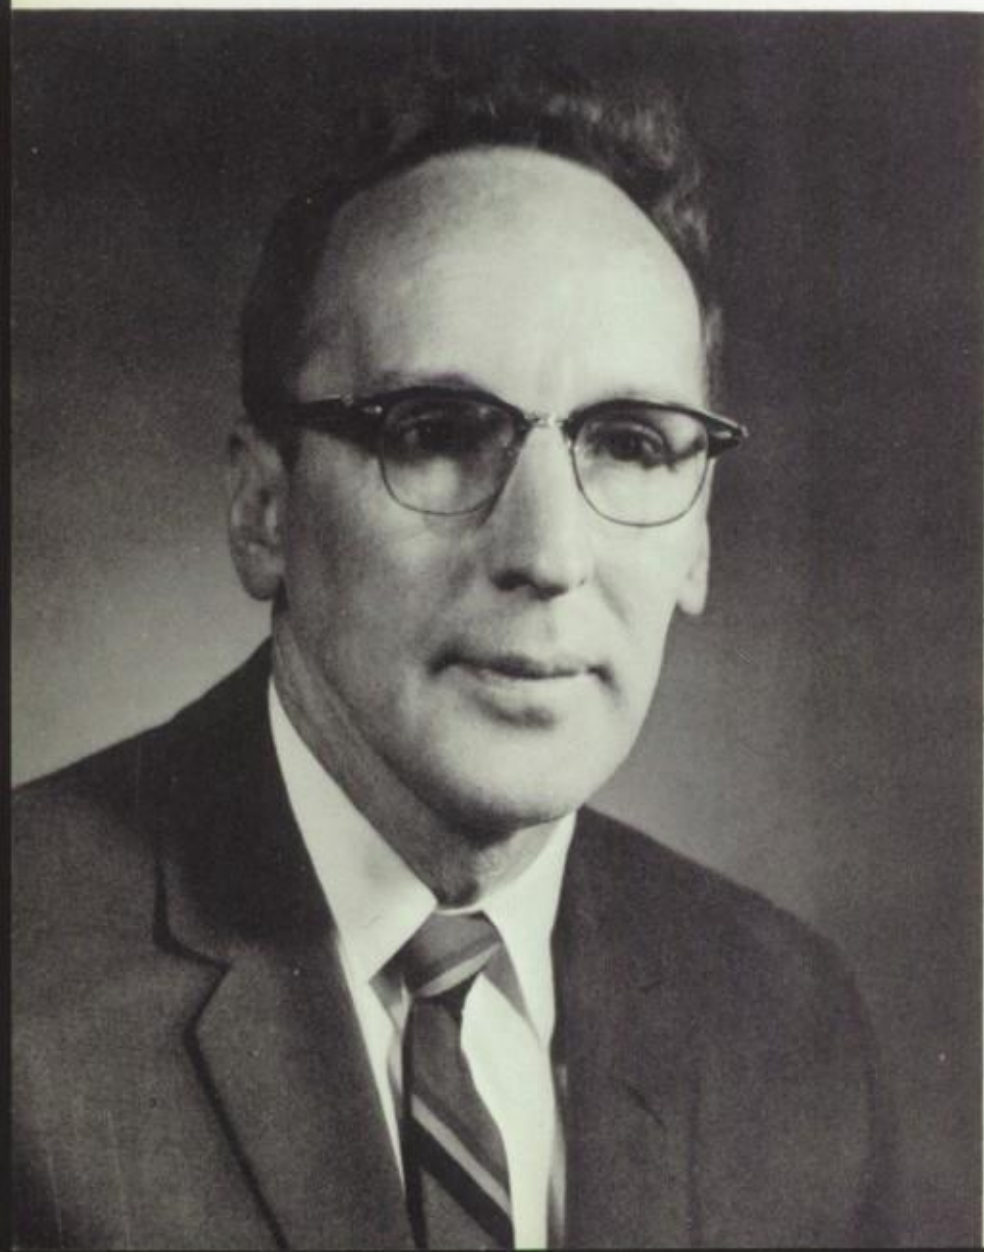

PATRICK J. HALL

B.A., St. Bonaventure; Fordham University; N.Y.U.
English II, III; Lower South

CHARLES P. LEAVER

B.S.A., University of Guelph; M.Ed., Rutgers University
General Science I, II, Mathematics I, II, Soccer

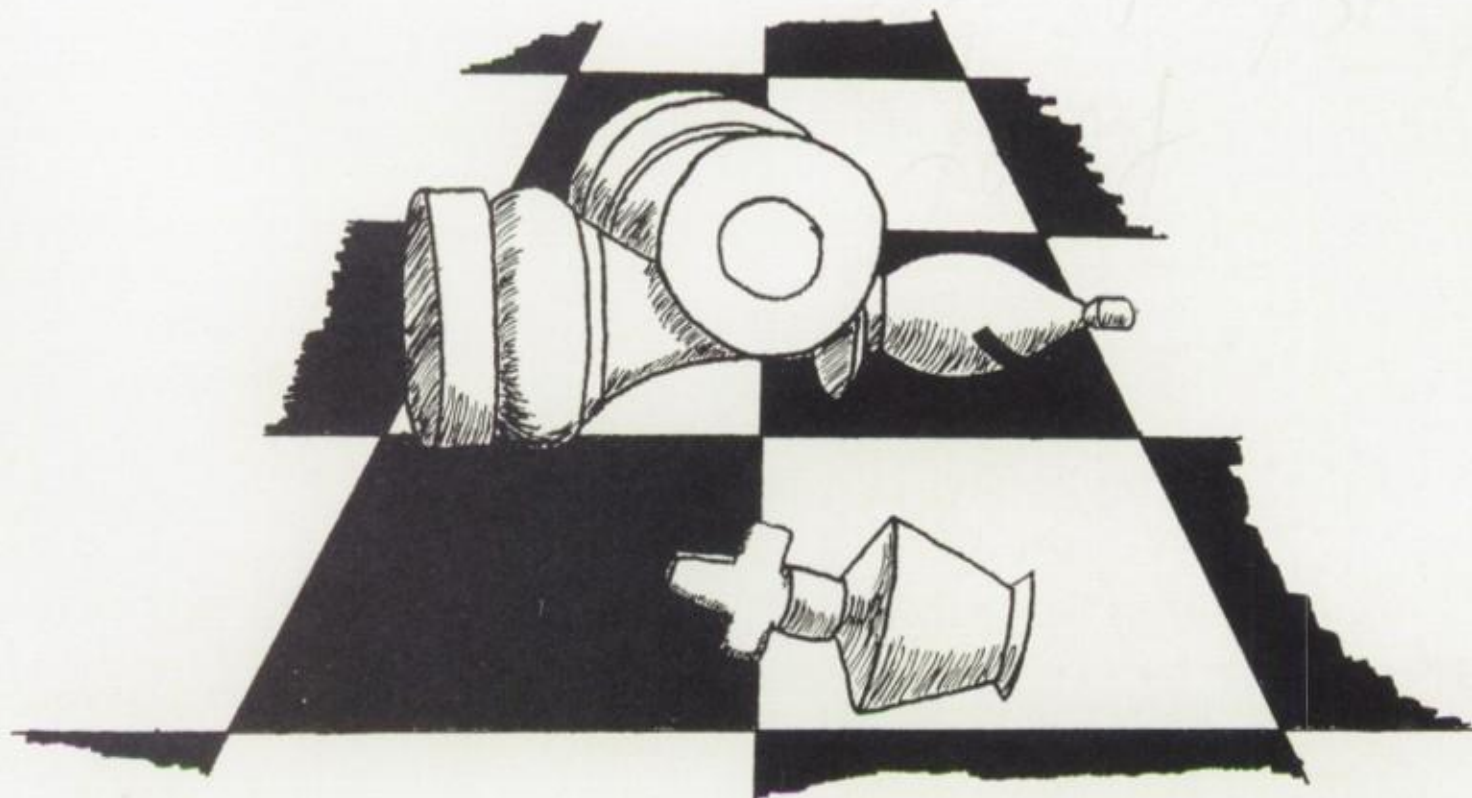

Mr. Leaver took over the reins of the soccer team after the season had started and successfully coached it to the best year yet. He also assumes the position of Lower School guiding mentor. Among Mr. Leaver's outside interests are such diverse activities as gardening and hockey. Mr. Leaver can always find time to help students struggling with Mathematics and Science.

CLARA WAGNER

B.A., University of Rochester; Columbia; Rutgers
Latin, German, French

Mrs. Wagner is teaching at Morristown on a full-time basis for the first time, although many students remember her as a substitute for a short while two years ago. She is fluent in three languages and teaches all three equally well. Her pleasant manner and cheerful smile have won her many friends at Morristown. She has survived the quick transition between public and private school teaching and we hope that she will continue to teach at Morristown for at least a few years yet.

For the past several years, Mrs. Mulholland has had the task of taking care of all our minor ills; a task which she has done extremely well. No one will forget the other little things that she has done for us: tending the Crane Library once a week, arranging the flowers on the dining room tables, and helping out in the office.

SENIORS

For the Seniors, this year is a bitter-sweet mixture—the pleasure of new worlds to conquer, the fear of strange things to come. There is so little time left for them to look back on life at Morristown—their careers stand before them. They have passed onward and left their legacy behind them—a legacy of scholarship, friendship and sportsmanship, which will not be forgotten.

PAUL ANDERSON

Shongum

Boarder 1

Band 6; Glee Club 6; Football 6; Baseball 6.

Paul has been at Morristown only a short time, but has made himself extremely conspicuous through his many creditable achievements. Excelling as a member of the Varsity football team, and being a promising baseball player, Paul's unflagging interest in athletics is known by all. Despite his silent manner in class, Paul does well in his studies, and shows a high potential for college. In just one year Paul has become an integral part of Prep life and will not soon be forgotten.

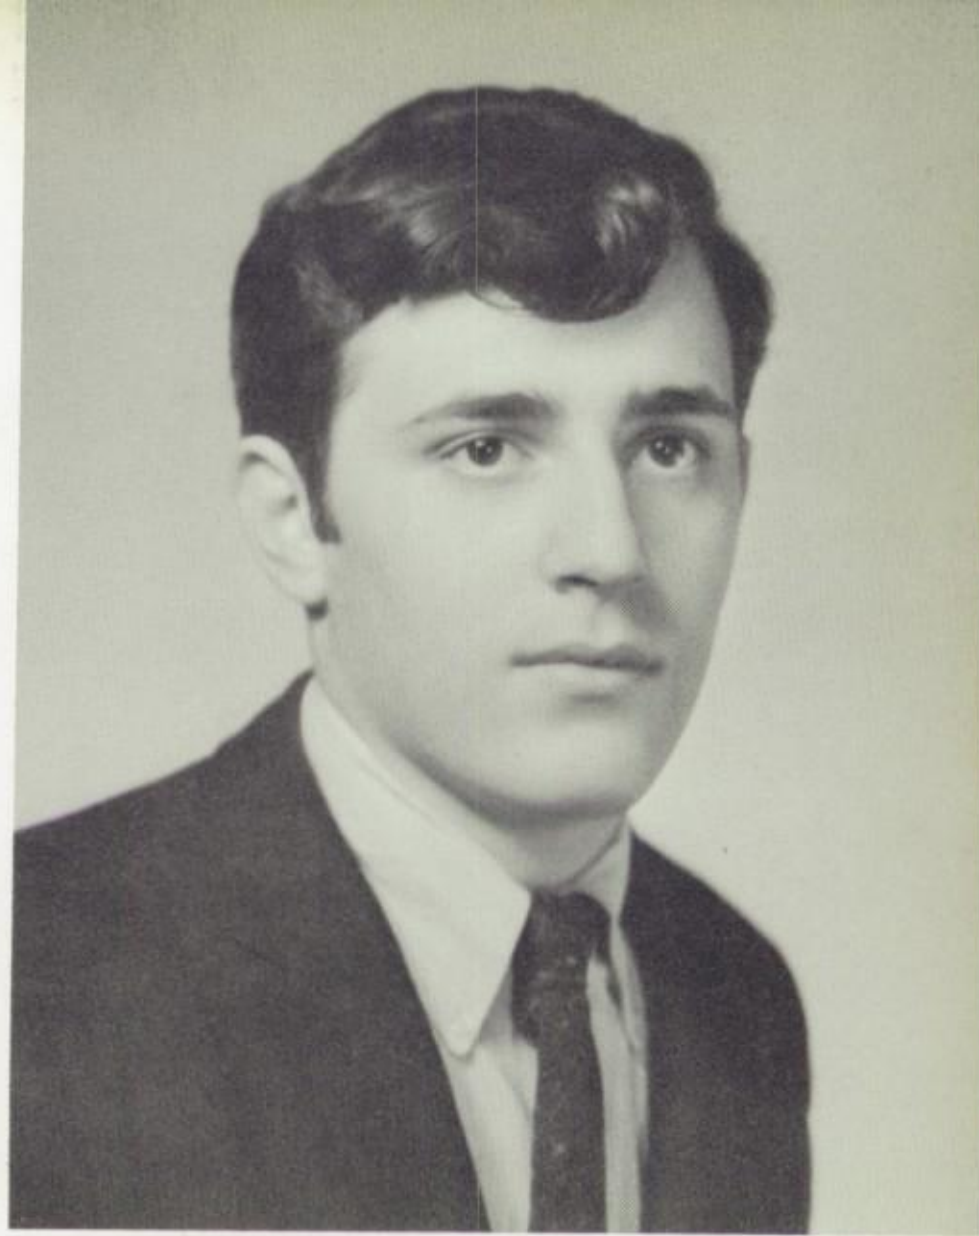

ALEXANDER ATHENS

Shongum

Boarder 3

Baseball 4, 5, 6; Soccer 5, 6; National Junior Honor Society 4; Glee Club 6; Library Committee 5.

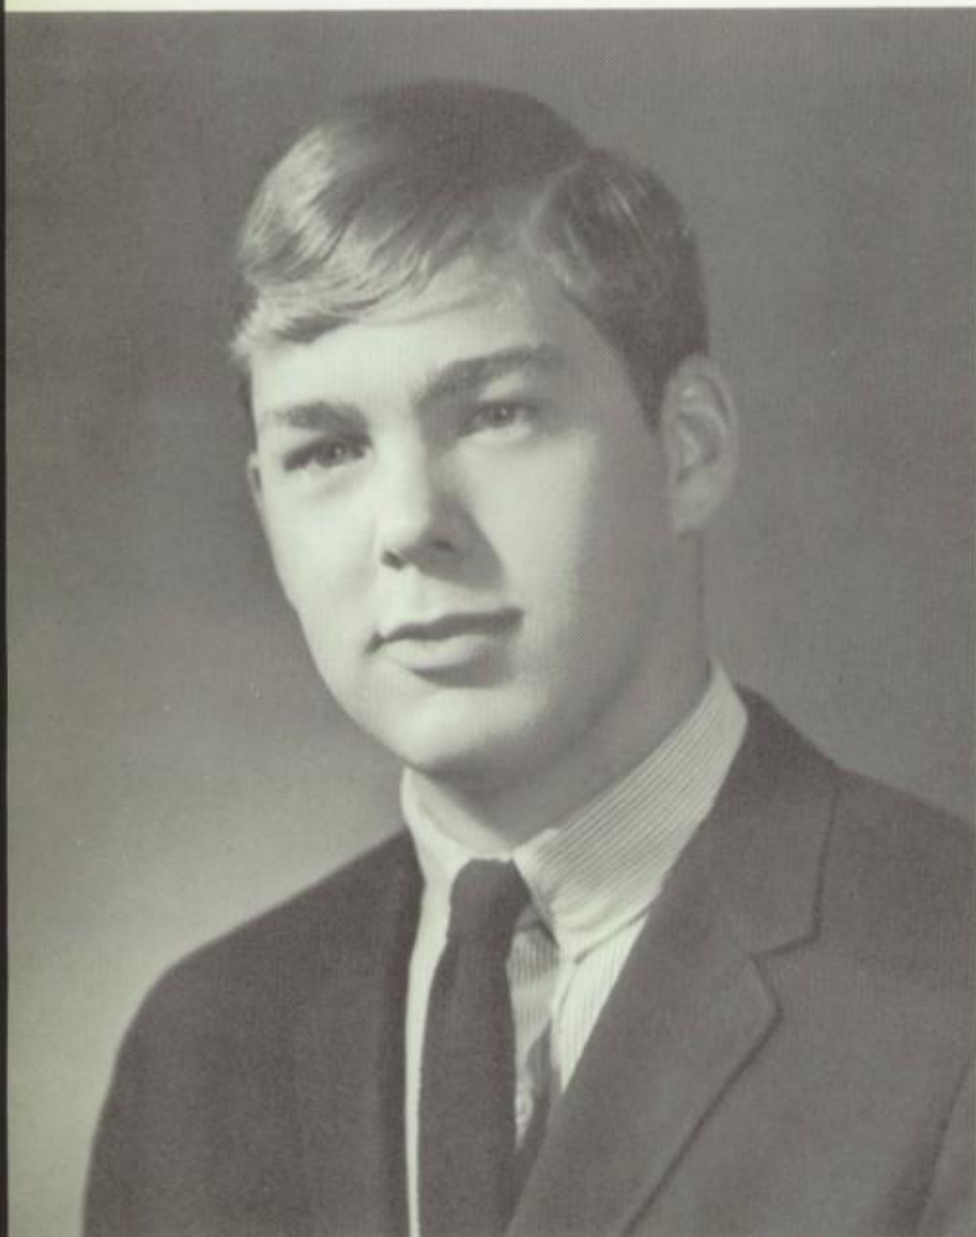

Alex is one of our unpredictables, noted for being deadly serious one minute and convulsing his friends with his latest quip the next. What he lacks in stature, he makes up through his high standing in school, both in academics and in sports. Ever since Alex's arrival, he has been in the limelight, either for his frequent late but spectacular entrances Sunday night, or for his habit of coining amusing and often unprintable nicknames for his contemporaries. His activities extend outside of school, where he plays the violin, heads church drives and sings in a touring glee club. We envy the college that is soon to possess Al and his varied talents.

Sam's constant striving for self-improvement has given him success while at Morristown School. His support of the school athletic teams has pointed him out as a truly rounded member of the student body, and his interest in his academic subjects has brought him success in studies. Sam goes about the day's activities quietly and unassumingly, but his accomplishments and attitudes certainly should command respect.

If anyone deserves the title "Mr. School Spirit", Barry is the uncontested candidate. His performances at Morris-town pep rallies have been an inspiration to all of us, and most certainly to the football team. As a member of the Council, Barry fulfills his duties wisely and well, and, under his influence, the Social Committee has won the respect it deserves. A natural leader, people instinctively look up to Barry for guidance, and he is generous with his advice, especially to the underclassman. Athlete, leader, scholar, Barry has done his share and more for the school.

CHRISTOPHER WAYNE CLOSS

Chris is probably the busiest person in the senior class. Between meeting deadlines for the newspaper and carrying out his duties as Senior Prefect, it is astonishing that he would have the time or the inclination to maintain a good class average. Chris possesses a large degree of warmth and personal charm, which account for his popularity on campus. His achievements on the athletic fields are notable, and his prowess on the ice is formidable.

Despite the quiet and reserved exterior for which he is noted, Dick unbends easily and has been known to play a leading role in lengthy and detailed discussions concerning his two major interests, football and fishing. Dick's academic record does him credit, and his ability to achieve high scores on English and U.S. History tests has gained for him a respect from his classmates. His friendliness and consideration for others will be of great assistance to him in his future.

In the light of his friendly manner and unpredictable sense of humor, Ez's academic accomplishments are often unnoticed. The fact remains, however, that he is one of our most diligent and serious scholars, having compiled, in his six years at Morristown, an exemplary academic record. His willingness and perseverance extend into many other facets of school life, making him a welcome assistant on any organization or project. Ez's thoughtfulness and almost ruthless efficiency have resulted in a respect accorded by the faculty as well as the entire class.

Bob's six years at Morristown have brought him a great many achievements. Besides being the possessor of a creditable scholastic record, his abilities have assisted a number of our athletic teams in many ways. Bob's subtle sense of humor, often unleashed at the strangest moments, has done a lot to raise the spirits of his fellow sufferers in various classes, not to mention the spirits of his teachers. His interest in and knowledge of electronics and automotive engineering should assist him ably in his future vocation.

Bill owns the other half of the Volkswagen and puts it to good use. His perpetual sunny spirit and captivating personality have raised him high in the estimation of his friends. Bill's dedication and school spirit account for the innumerable behind-the-scenes services he has performed for the Prep, notable among these being his capable managing of the Varsity hockey team. His performance in the field of academic endeavor does him credit. We all owe Bill a vote of thanks for his invaluable services to us and to the school.

Chuck, what time the prep has given us! the Heat Wave, Shipping Out, Fun with Ralphie, Take it slow into New York, Storm King and Port services. Good luck in College, Bill

Despite all appearances to the contrary, Mike is capable of being extremely serious. His school work and academic achievements bear this out completely. The undisputed leader of the sixth form, Mike also does well in athletics, notably football. As a boarder, Mike finds many ways to leave the mark of his unmistakable and unusual sense of humor on the school and a number of its inhabitants, all of whom are probably better off for it. His often exaggerated, but nonetheless screamingly funny imitations of certain faculty members ("Hey . . . uh . . . boys") are his main stock in trade, and Mike uses them well. Mike will not soon be forgotten at the Prep.

Gio is the unchallenged comedian of the senior class. His good humor and high spirits have made him one of the favorites among the denizens of the Senior Hall before chapel. Although not readily apparent, however, Bill has a serious side, which manifests itself in his scholastic and academic record. He gives unselfishly and willingly of his time, to aid in various phases of Prep life, and is often seen typing a story to help the newspaper reach a deadline. His popularity and perseverance will be a great asset to him in his future career.

One of the leaders of the Prep athletic faction, John commands respect from the entire school. Perhaps best known for his superb achievements on the grid-iron, John has many other interests and pursues them all with the same determination which characterizes his athletic career. John makes friends easily and is usually in the center of a crowd during his leisure time. John has attacked his studies diligently and has made steady improvement since he came. When John leaves, the playing fields will be a little less exuberant, but the field house of some college will be the more so for his presence.

Randy will be remembered at Morris-tion on the hockey team for two years, and on the soccer team for one year. He has been very successful at both. When he is not in the cage he can usually be found behind the wheel of his white Mustang. A person not easily discourwants out of life and be a success at whatever he tries.

Pete is the owner of what is probably the most complex personality of any student. Beneath this apparent randomness, however, a sense of purpose and determination prevails. Pete's sardonic wit has afforded him a school-wide reputation as a clown but his record in his studies and in athletics belies this. He has shown himself to be capable of achieving honors in many fields and his performance as a member of the swimming team is extremely laudatory. We are sure that only good things lie ahead for Pete.

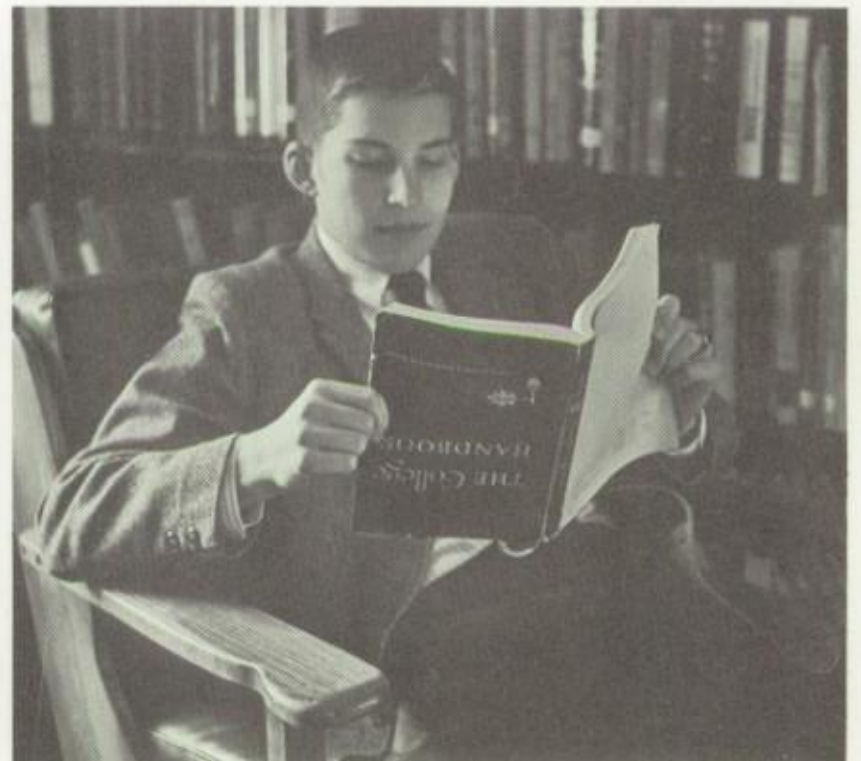

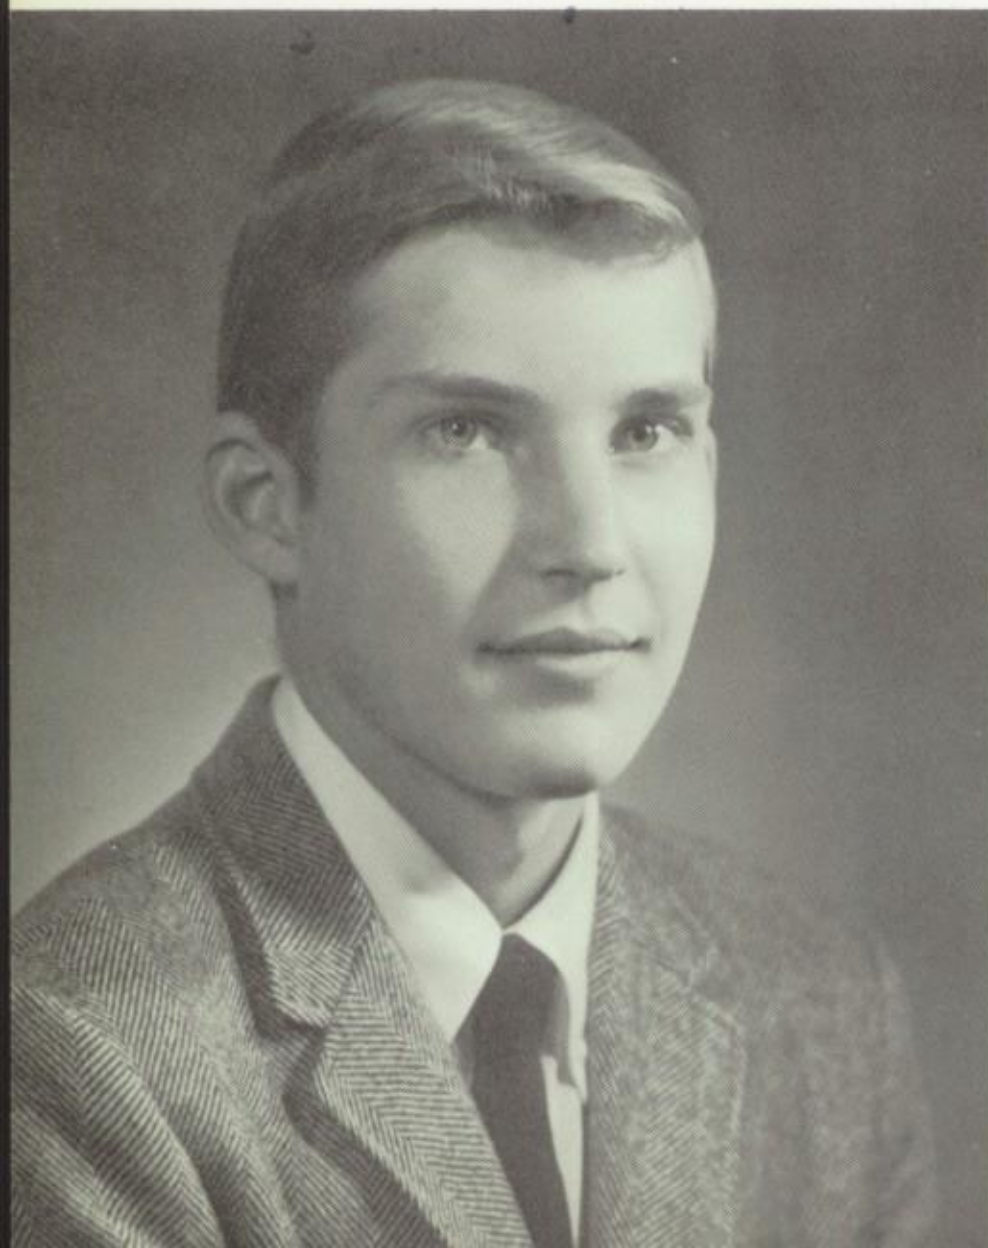

Charlie's three years at M.S. have been hectic, to say the least. Famed for his literary talent, Charlie has expressed student opinion through editorials, poems, and sundry controversial publications. His knowledge of foreign languages has spiced many a conversation at the German Table. A stalwart soccer player, he has not limited himself to academics. To no one's surprise, Charlie's political aspirations may some day be fulfilled.

Bill is a good example of a well-rounded student, excelling in everything he sets his hand to. His performance as a member of the varsity swimming team was laudable, as well as his record as a member of the football squad. Bill's fine voice can be heard when the Glee Club, of which he is President, assembles for a school show or the like. Bill has made many good friends in his three years at Morristown, and will not soon be forgotten by any of us.

Outside the whirl of academics, hunting and tinkering with cars rate high. Jeff is one of the "wheels" on campus, and can often be found in a group of his friends expressing an opinion on a variety of subjects. A good and willing worker, Jeff's dedication to the school is tremendous.

Charlie has achieved a certain notoriety among us, chiefly for his spectacular escapades in the South and in Greenwich Village. His invaluable services in the dormitory account for his nickname "Chinese laundryman". His perennial sunny countenance has become a welcome addition to the Prep in his three years among us.

Gary is perhaps one of the best examples of a well-rounded student. A very creditable scholastic record combined with not a few successes in athletics bear out this statement completely. Being naturally loquacious, Gary feels most at home when talking with some of his many friends, and his unique sense of humor provides countless opportunities for him to do just this. Popular and respected, Gary is assured of success in life.

Chris can usually be found early in the morning joking with a few other seniors in the Front Hall. A hard worker at his studies, Chris also finds time for football (fall and winter) and the Salmagundi. Easily recognizable leading cheers at athletic events, Chris' school spirit is highly infectious. Chris' easy-going manner should make him a welcome addition to any college campus.

Todd is famous as Morristown's big, fleet-footed fullback. Besides his spectacular three-year athletic record, Todd has compiled an equally commendable list of activities, and in class, he is a studious and willing learner. A boarder, Todd's infamous reputation is probably due to the legendary "debauchery box" of the Rookery. The amiable "sleepy bear" has won the affection and respect of the student body almost to a man, and the halls of the Prep will undoubtedly lose some of their welcome with Todd's leaving.

Looking at Bob's achievements of the past four years, one would get the distinct impression that he was born under the proverbial "lucky star". Not so, however. Bob simply uses his varied talents to their best advantage. In his term as a prefect, he has gained the respect of the entire school, and his performance as soccer captain last fall was exemplary. One familiar sight not to be with us long is that of Bob's famous VW whipping noisily out of the drive.

Ian's warm and pleasant demeanor has made him one of the most liked members of the class. Ian has a friendly word for everyone, an asset to him in his capacity as a member of the Front Hall Committee. He is perhaps best known for his intense interest in flying, and is well on his way to becoming a fully licensed pilot. His prowess on the wrestling mat has earned him the respect of a good many grapplers throughout the state.

Day 2

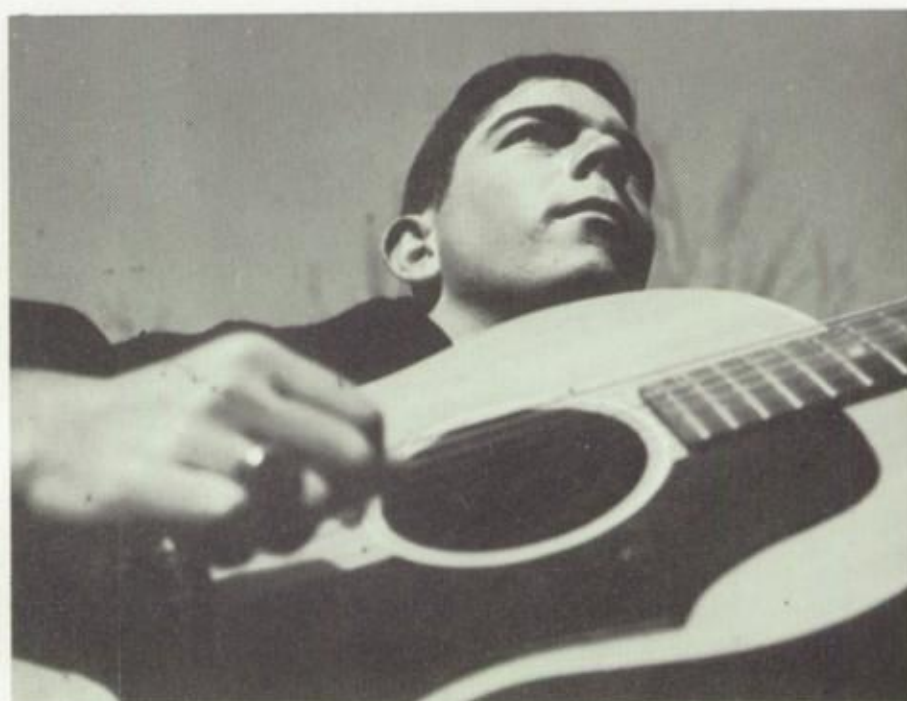

Track 5; Swimming 5; Soccer 6; Track 6.

A mid-Junior year arrival, Chuck has managed to gain the friendship and respect of a majority of his class. He is noted for his frequent weekend trips to New York state. An accomplished dancer, Chuck can always show his friends the latest "in" steps. It is a continual matter of discussion whether he will arrive in his sporty Anglia or his parents' Buick, but he would be welcome even on a bicycle. We know that his ambition will carry him far and assist him in everything he does.

If Tom were pictured doing what he most liked, we would be seeing him playing his guitar in his Volkswagen in the parking lot of Governor Livingston Regional High School. A frequenter of the Hideaway, a coffee and folk-singing den, his heros include Bob Dylan and Dave VanRonk. Tom's athletic pursuits include skiing and giving a needed boost to the Prep's varsity tennis team. His famous red VW, his musical ability and his likeable nature have won him many friends and will undoubtedly continue to do so.

When Art rolls on campus in his green Pontiac, the day officially begins for the Senior day boys. His leadership ability cannot be overestimated, especially in his capacity as a starting defenseman for the hockey team. Monday morning finds Art in the Senior Hall relating his weekend adventures in the Summit area to an admiring and slightly envious enclave of listeners. His easygoing nature has made him a friend to the entire class. Art's tenacious nature will be a great asset to him in the future as it has in his life at Morristown.

Bob is one of the mainstays of our powerful wrestling squad and hopes to better his already commendable record during this season. Friendly and outgoing, Bob is a familiar sight in the Senior Hall in the mornings before chapel, finishing up a bit of homework or simply talking with one of his friends.

Look into the center of a crowd of laughing students and the chances are good that Rog will be there, utilizing to the fullest his inexhaustible capacity for jokes. His unique brand of humor has become as much a part of the Prep as morning chapel and afternoon athletics. Rog's serious side is evident in his scholastic record and in his capable editorship of the Salmagundi. Renowned for his interest in water skiing and automobiles, Rog's opinions are invariably welcome in discussions.

Fred is one of our top students, often in contention for the position of class leader, and is a member of both campus honor societies. His contributions to our athletic program, both as a manager and as a player, have been considerable. All in all, Fred has a great deal working for him.

Big Marv is the terror of the gridiron. A lot of the yardage piled up in the last two years has been the doing of "Marvelous Marv" and his tremendous athletic ability. Despite his reputation as the scourge of the Junior English class, he shows potential as a student and may surprise all of us someday. Meanwhile his athletic record merits sufficient recognition in itself. The YMCA pool will miss Marv and his cohorts of the now-extinct swimming team this winter, and the denizens of Morristown will, to a man, miss him next September.

It is hard to believe that he has only been with us two years, for in that time we have grown to know, like and respect him. After a hard day of classes, Pete is always ready with a cheery greeting and a bright smile, and has probably prevented more nervous breakdowns with this method than Freud and all his inkblots. Pete takes his responsibilities as a member of the Council seriously and can be counted on to be fair and unbiased. Good luck, Pete!

Frank's diabolical personality has enlightened many a dull moment and has won him many friends. As a boarder Frank turned many nights into uproars, and as a day boy, Frank still turns his classes upside down. Frank's exuberance can be misleading. Behind that gay exterior lies an individual with a drive to excel and to show leadership. This can best be seen on the soccer field. Outside of school Frank's main interest is keeping both his car and himself out of trouble. With such an array of interests and a sense of individualism Frank is an odds-on favorite to romp in the game of life.

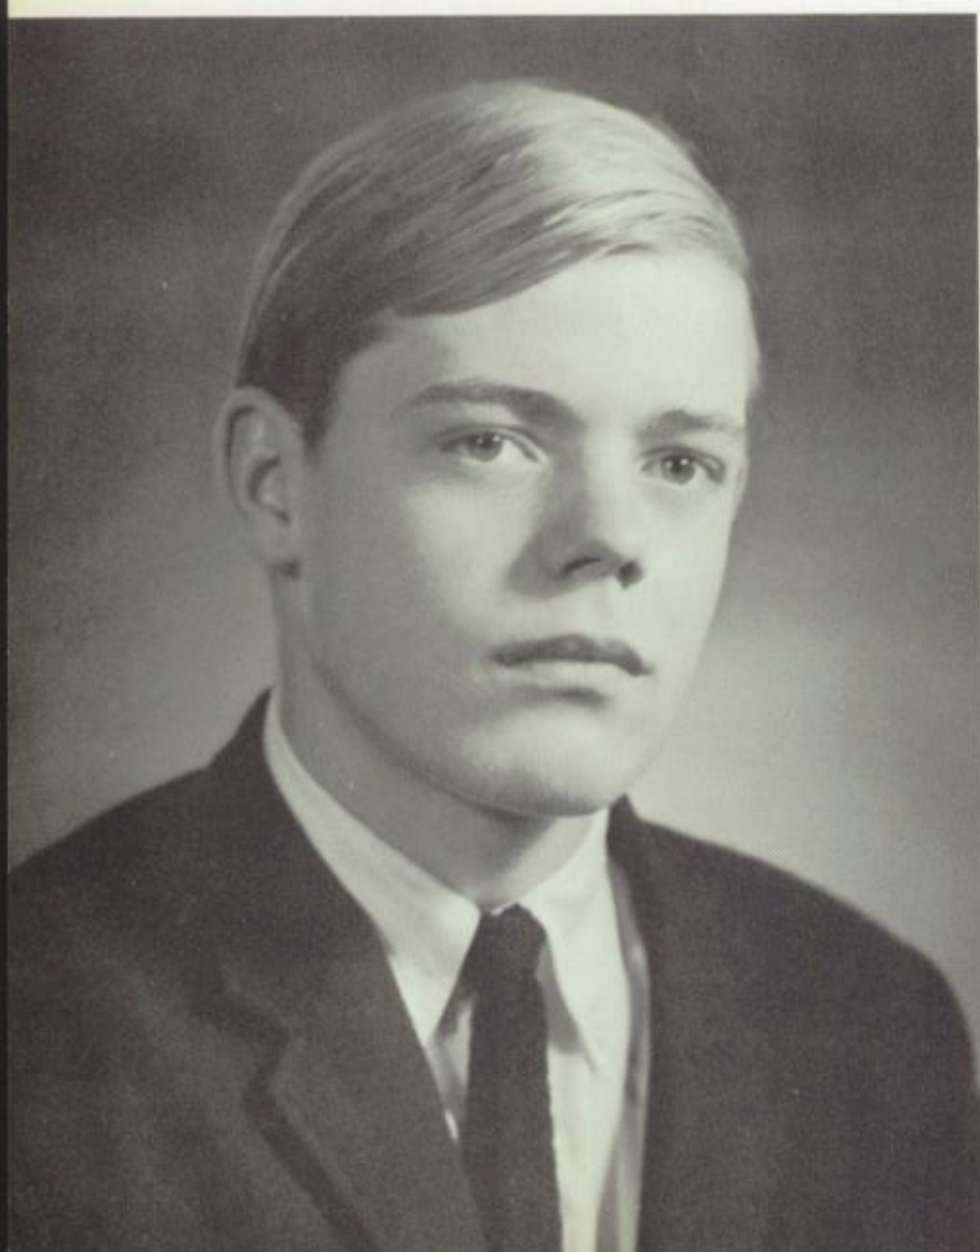

The heady captain and first line center of the Crimson hockey team, Jon blazed the trail for a successful season. ATHLETICS

Victory was the watchword at Morristown this year; winning has become a tradition, although we have had our share of losses. The driving spirit of the fall season carried through the winter and brought us up to another spring schedule. Some of our teams have become champions in the truest sense of the word. Good sportsmanship and fair play, have been a characteristic at Morristown this year.

The traditionally invincible cross-country team enjoyed their twelfth consecutive winning season last fall. In addition, the runners competed for and won the Group "B" New Jersey Independent School Invitational Meet Championship. One of the remarkable things about this perennially victorious team is that it is composed solely of underclassmen, all of whom credit the coach, Larry Totton, with the credit for their exceptional record, and all of whom admire and emulate his tremendous spirit and determination.

This year's varsity football team can be summed up in two words; spirit and determination. The team improved steadily as the season progressed. Due to an unfortunate lack of experience and size, we were unable to outpoint the majority of our opponents.

The high point of the season came when the Morristown team traveled to St. Bernards. The Prep won by the decisive score of 26-6. Our showing in this and other games leads us to believe our many returning lettermen will form the nucleus of a better team next year.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 1965 Junior Varsity Football Team, ably coached by Mr. James, competed in five games. In spite of the fact that the team did not have a winning season, the players are all to be commended for their splendid esprit de corps. FRESHMAN

The 1965 freshman football team, although playing a short season, compiled a creditable record of two wins, one loss and one tie. The loss was to Delbarton and Donnie Brae's larger eleven was fought to a draw by the frosh players. Newark Academy was trounced twice in a single season. The team, ably coached by Mr. Burke, has done much to prepare the football players for future seasons on the varsity team.

The story of this year's soccer team was one of hots and colds. The team got off to an excellent start, playing good soccer and accounting for the first M.S. soccer victory in three years, a 2-1 win over St. Bernards. After a defeat at the hands of unbeaten Montclair Academy, the Prep booters bounced back to tie Wardlaw, a previous victor.

Due mainly to injuries, the record tailed off from this point, but team spirit remained high, and they did manage to tie Rutgers Prep 2-2. Altogether it was the most successful soccer season in the short history of the sport at Morristown School.

To say that Morristown had a trying season on the basketball court this year would be an understatement. We are looking forward to the time, we hope in the near future, when Morristown will return to its former eminence as a basketball power.

HOCKEY

The 1966 Varsity Hockey Team saw perhaps the greatest season it has ever played. The team was very fortunate because there were no serious injuries. We placed second at the end of regular league play and then went on to defeat Livingston and West Essex High Schools for the Gordon Cup.

With the great spirit displayed by the team and the excellent coaching of Mr. MacFarlane, the team ended with an over-all record of 17-2-1. Captained by Jon Vlachos and assisted by Randy Hauserman and Art Schuessler, the team came up with victories over every other team in the league—splitting with Montclair and West Essex.

Excellent goal tending by Randy Hauserman was a key factor along with the great scoring punch of the first line: Jon Vlachos, Terry Washbourne and Scott Guibord. Adding to this the fine defensive play by Chris Closs, Art Schuessler and Bill Croy, provided the remaining element for a Championship team.

Jon Vlachos was presented with the Halverson trophy for the most outstanding player of the year. He finished the season with 47 goals and 32 assists.

Although the team is losing many senior lettermen, it promises another successful season for next year.

The 1966 Varsity Wrestling Team deserves perhaps more praise than the more successful teams of the past. The fact that the coach chose to wrestle a number of public high schools many times larger than Morristown is a tribute to his determination and confidence in his men. Although the Crimson grapplers were defeated twice at the hands of these high schools, their performance in these matches was superb, and rendered even more so by the presence of high odds against the crew. More than in any past year, the wrestlers' courage and never-say-die attitude was evident in every contest.

With six returning lettermen, we are confident of having as strong a team as ever. The track team, always the largest team of the spring season, generates enthusiasm in all of its devoted members. Under the expert coaching of Mr. Totton and Mr. Burr, the team has always enjoyed a winning season.

The J.V. baseball team was again under the able leadership of Mr. James. Coach James' team was aided by the presence of five returning players, Bob Willetts, Kevin Shaw, Dave Firth, Ralph Galdieri and John O'Neill. The team was looking for an all-around improvement, specifically in the field of pitching. There is much potential power on the team, and Coach James hopes that this cashes in during the games. With this in mind, he looked optimistically toward the season, and the hoped-for success.

ACTIVITIES

Extracurricular activities rank high in Morristown School's program. Every student can find at least one club, committee or staff that appeals to him among the wealth of organizations on campus. Although advised by members of the faculty, these student activities are operated and run by the boys themselves, thereby instilling in them the desirable qualities of honesty, leadership and responsibility to guide them through life safely and well.

STUDENT COUNCIL

In any school, the Student Council is a valuable liaison between the student body and the faculty. Morristown is no exception; in fact the Council is doubly important because of the school's very nature. These seven boys, elected every year in May, are the cream of the crop of Morristown students. They perform the important task of running study halls, keeping order, and preserving the spirit and code of the school.

At Morristown, scholastic achievement rates high. The members of the two honor societies have met rigid standards of scholarship, sportsmanship and citizenship. Both organizations are under the supervision and guidance of Mr. O'Neill.

Editor Roger Schwarz confers with Mr. MacFarlane.

The fact that the 1966 Salmagundi is one of the best put out yet is largely due to the efforts of the score or so of students who were willing to give up their free time to type copy, file photos and all the other mundane tasks associated with a successful annual. This year a "first" was inaugurated as the Salmagundi staff operated and maintained its own office, a factor contributing heavily to the efficiency and organization of their work.

A newspaper can be a great asset to any school, and the Morristown School News fulfills the job efficiently and well. Capably advised by Mr. Speck, the News reports school events, expresses student opinion, provides insight into the mysterious workings of the administration and comments on conditions at Morristown, in addition to providing extremely interesting reading to faculty and students alike. The advent of a new issue of the periodical is an event in itself, eagerly awaited by everyone.

The Social Committee is responsible for the enjoyable dances presented at the school in the course of the year. Often highly imaginative in theme and decor, these affairs have provided many an otherwise dull Saturday night with a large measure of fun. Capably advised by Mr. MacFarlane, who lends his considerable artistic talents to the decorating, the Social Committee is perhaps the most important of all student groups at Morristown, and gives student morale a tremendous boost.

Barry Byrne and Advisor MacFarlane discuss upcoming dance.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Chairman Zimmerman expresses an opinion, to the consternation of all.

VARSITY "M" CLUB

"M" Club Officers: Schuessler, President Todd LeBart, McGough.

The Varsity "M" Club is composed of Morristown's organizational lettermen. Besides promoting the cause of athletics in every way possible, they are also responsible for the food at all home games. Under the direction of Mr. Totton, the club is dedicated to the ideals of sportsmanship.

CHAPEL COMMITTEE

RIGHT: MacDougall, Johnson, F.

CRIMSON COURIER

The Crimson Courier, now in its second year of operation, provides a welcome relief for the dull days of winter. Appearing every Friday, and extolling the virtues of the Prep athletic teams, it boosts the spirits of the players as well as the spectators. With a staff comprised of participants in all three winter sports, the Courier provides its readers with an inside view of the teams, the players and their aspirations.

You can always spot a member of the Library Committee, returning books to the shelves, retrieving mail from the office, or listing books in the card catalogue. Under the direction of Miss Smith, the boys keep the Crane Library running smoothly. In doing this, they learn more about books and library operation.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE

FRONT HALL COMMITTEE

The boys comprising the Front Hall Committee perform one of the most important services in the school. Besides running errands for the office staff, collecting attendance slips and the like, one of the committee is always on hand to greet visitors to the school. The ten members must be efficient, responsible and presentable. Luckily, all the students affiliated fulfill these requirements and do their part to keep Morristown well-run and efficient.

GLEE CLUB

Under the aegis of Mr. Berninger the Morristown School Glee Club has provided yet another outlet for talent.

For many years now the Morristown School Band has provided a happy outlet for Student talent and good music at school functions. Most of the credit for this continuing tradition goes to Mrs. Stewart whose unflagging interest and wide ability have brought talent to light and inspired fledgling musicians. Mrs. Stewart is joined in her efforts by her husband who gives generously of his leisure time to assist her.

BOYS' STORE COMMITTEE

The boys on this committee devote time that the others have free. Early in the morning and during recess they can be found marketeering the latest student wares. Famed for purchasing excursions into Morristown, the Boys' Store under the direction of Mr. Burr is an active, efficient organization.

RECREATION COMMITTEE ROOM

The well-equipped Morristown School Wreck Wroom provides a place where the students can turn two cokes and a pool game into a big night. The students belonging to the Recreation Committee devote much of their spare time towards keeping the area presentable for the boys, a large and time-consuming job. Those who enjoy the comforts of the Wreck Wroom owe this committee a great deal of thanks for their efforts.

PATRONS DIRECTORY ADVERTISEMENTS

The production of a yearbook can be an expensive process. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all those generous people who so unselfishly contributed so that the 1966 Salmagundi would be assured of success. We are indebted to the parents and local businessmen whose names appear on the following pages more than we can ever repay.

SALMAGUNDI
School Annual

THE MORRISTOWN SCHOOL NEWS
Student Newspaper

To all who helped to make this book,

At this time I would like to express my sincere thanks to all those who helped make this book possible.

In particular I would like to thank Mr. Thomas Everett for his advice and cooperation in printing the book; Mr. Armando Lombardi for his suggestions and patience in doing our photography; Mr. Donald MacFarlane for his invaluable assistance as Advisor to the SALMAGUNDI staff.

I would also like to thank those members of the staff who helped greatly with its publication: Bill Croy, Charles Heitzeberg, Chris Lamberton, and Fred Shilstone for writing a major portion of the yearbook; Bill Hough for his assistance in photography;
Bill Stallings for the art work that appears throughout the book.

Once again a thanks to all who contributed in any way toward making the production of the 1966 SALMAGUNDI a little easier.

Best wishes to you all,

Roger Schwarz
Editor
